

Dear Miss Carrie

I would like a keyboard, because I would like to play like my grandpa. He can play like an expert. I think he is the best in the world. That is my opinion and we can play together. That's why I want a keyboard. I would love to be like him. So we can compete with each other. Also we can find other people and compete with them too. My grandpa can be king. I can be queen.